In the 50 year history of the college
there have been many changes.
Rules have been abolished,
styles have changed,
courses have been added,
the campus has grown in size,
and new buildings cover the horizon.

But in reality
the 1977 student is little different from the student of 1927
Students are still students,
taking part in campus activities,
cramming for exams,
all with hopes and dreams
for the future.

The campus has grown from the original three buildings, (boys dormitory pictured above, Tate dormitory for girls, which is still in use, and of course, the focal point of the campus, then and now, the Administration Building) to include numerous classroom buildings, dormitories, apartment buildings, Coliseum, Union, bus shop, maintenance plant, a 397-acre farm, and a branch campus.

Administration Building 1927

Note the size of the tree in front of the building.

Four men have been responsible for making our college what it is today — Porter W. Berry (above) 1926-1936; R. C. Pugh (upper right) 1936-1953; R. D. McLendon (right) 1953-1974; and Henry B. Koon (opposite page) 1974 through the present.

Jesse Thompson Barham, first student to register at NWJC, Fall 1926.

1927 Rules

1. Girls may go to town Monday and Thursday afternoons.
2. Study period will be observed in their own rooms from 7:30 to 9:30. Lights out at 10:30.
3. Church and Sunday School must be attended Sunday mornings.
4. Girls are permitted to have dates on campus Sunday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30.
5. Students are properly chaperoned to the picture show on Friday night.
6. Girls are not allowed to ride in cars unchaperoned.

Social Life

As is the custom in boarding school, we have regulations against the boys and girls associating with each other at will, except as they are thrown together in the classes and in the presence of the teachers. At times, however, and as often as the faculty deems best, these regulations will be suspended and the students will be given an opportunity for social intercourse.

Northwest, you've come a long way!

1977 — not only the 50th anniversary year, but a year that will be remembered by students that were a part of the Northwest campus for the rest of our lives.

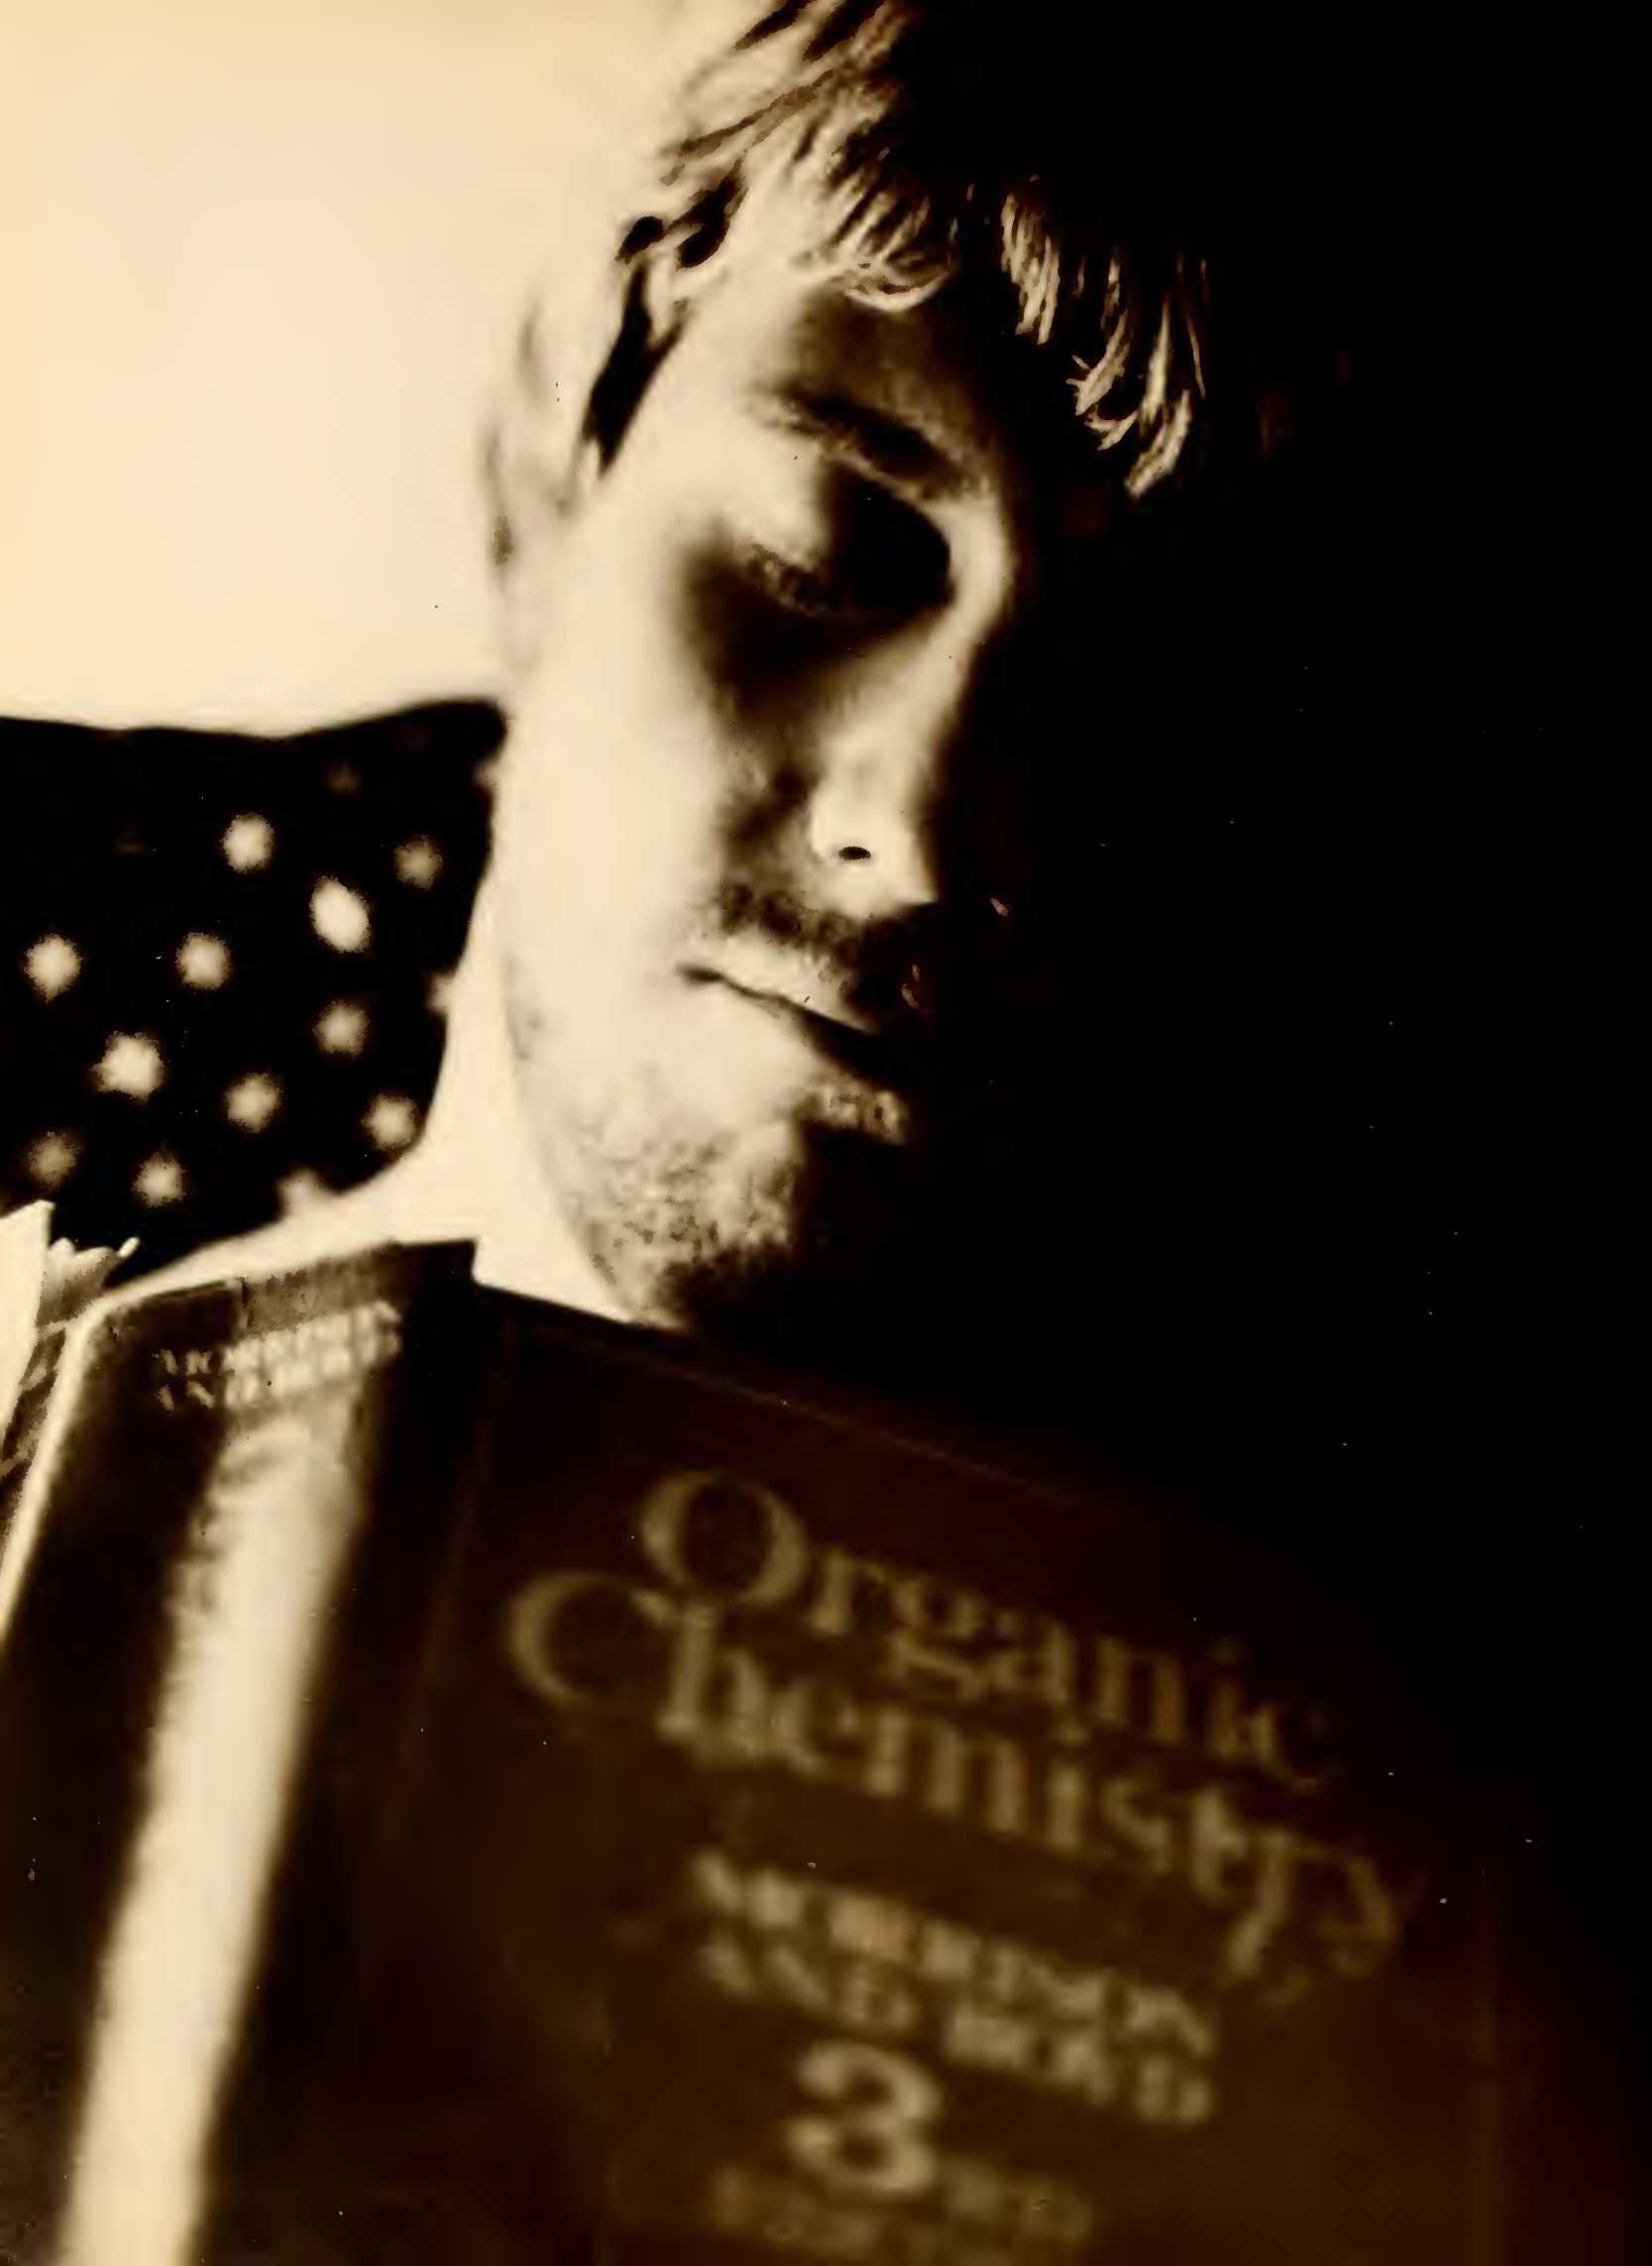

Not everyone will remember all that happened this year, but each of us will remember something.

The Union, our home away from home, where students could relax, shoot
pool, play cards, or just be ourselves.
Remember?

Cold showers, alarm clocks, room check, pop corn poppers, studying for exams, noisy halls after midnight — they all add up to assorted memories of dorm life.

'77 was the year of the dreaded swine flu. Hundreds of students gathered to take the vaccination, others decided to take their chance with the flu. Some could not decide which would be worse, the shot or the flu

"Go Rangers!"
This chant will linger in our memories for many years to come.

Who could forget the bus trips? Long distances or just down the road, they all led to one thing — another victory for the Rangers.

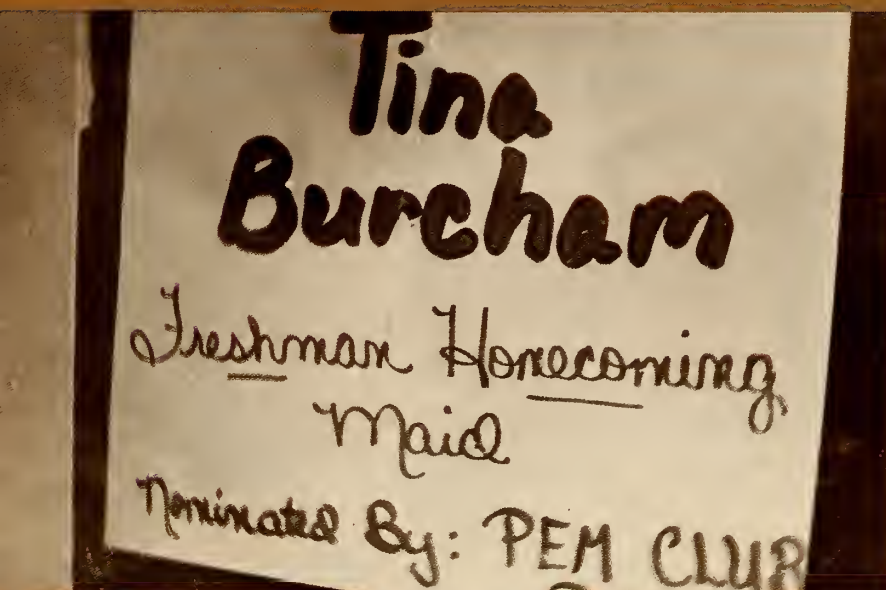

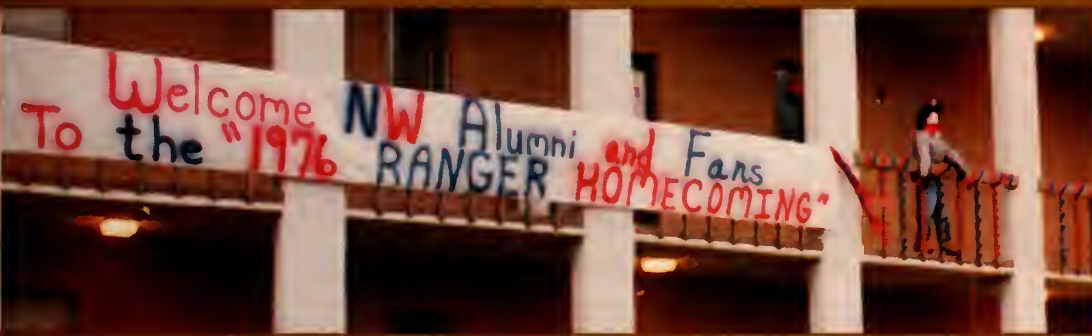

Everyone will remember the cafeteria. Lines will always be long, meal tickets will always be lost and mystery meat will always be a mystery.

Who's Who, Homecoming, and SGA offices, candidates filled the buildings on campus with signs and later sighs as the final ballots were counted.

Remember who you voted for?

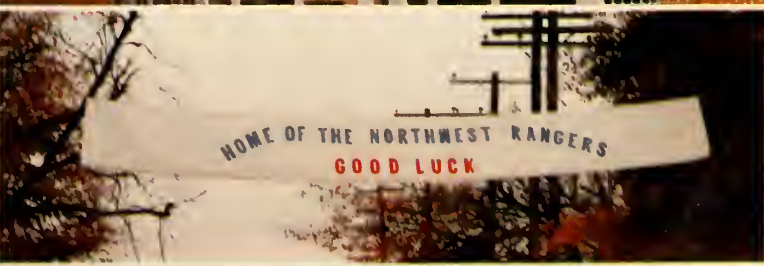

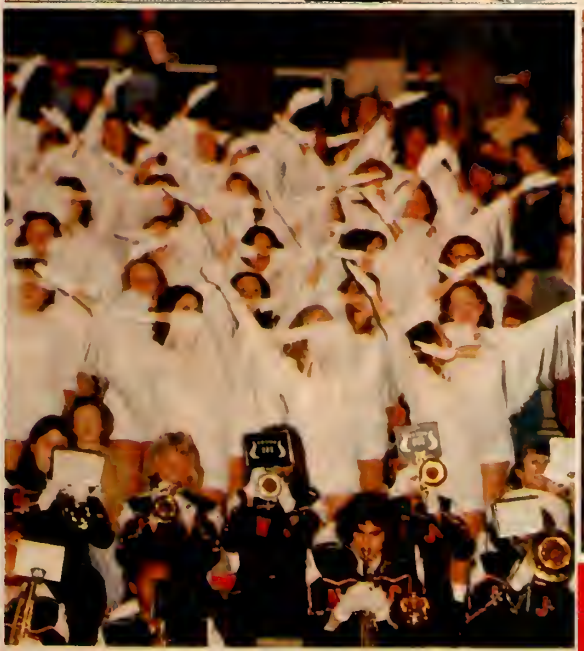

Ice, snow and record low temperatures slowed students down a little and for a short period of time the natural gas shortage stopped classes completely (this is something we will never forget).

But, with books in hand and a heavier coat, we made it through the winter of '77.

Memories will range from concerts to the parade honoring the Rangers before the state championship football game.

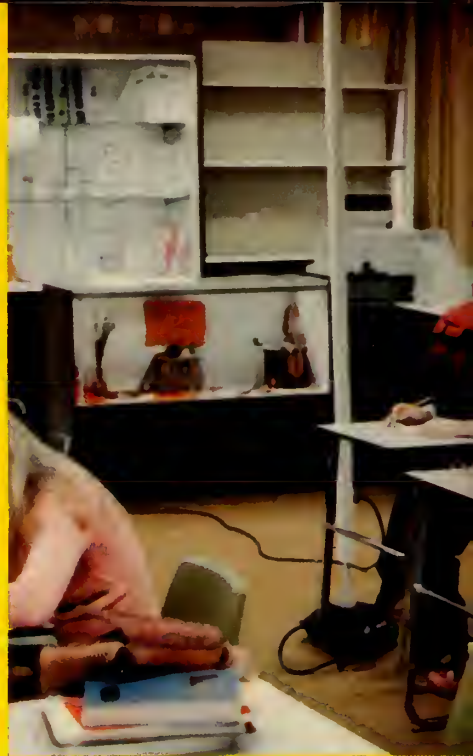

Friendship circles were formed. Some will fade with the passing of time and become only a memory, but the true ones will remain strong and unbroken.

Different strokes for different folks. Remember hearing that line in sociology class?

Maybe the class was interesting, maybe it was required, maybe we will remember something.

Sometimes together, sometimes alone, we faced victory and defeat,
happiness and sorrow . . .

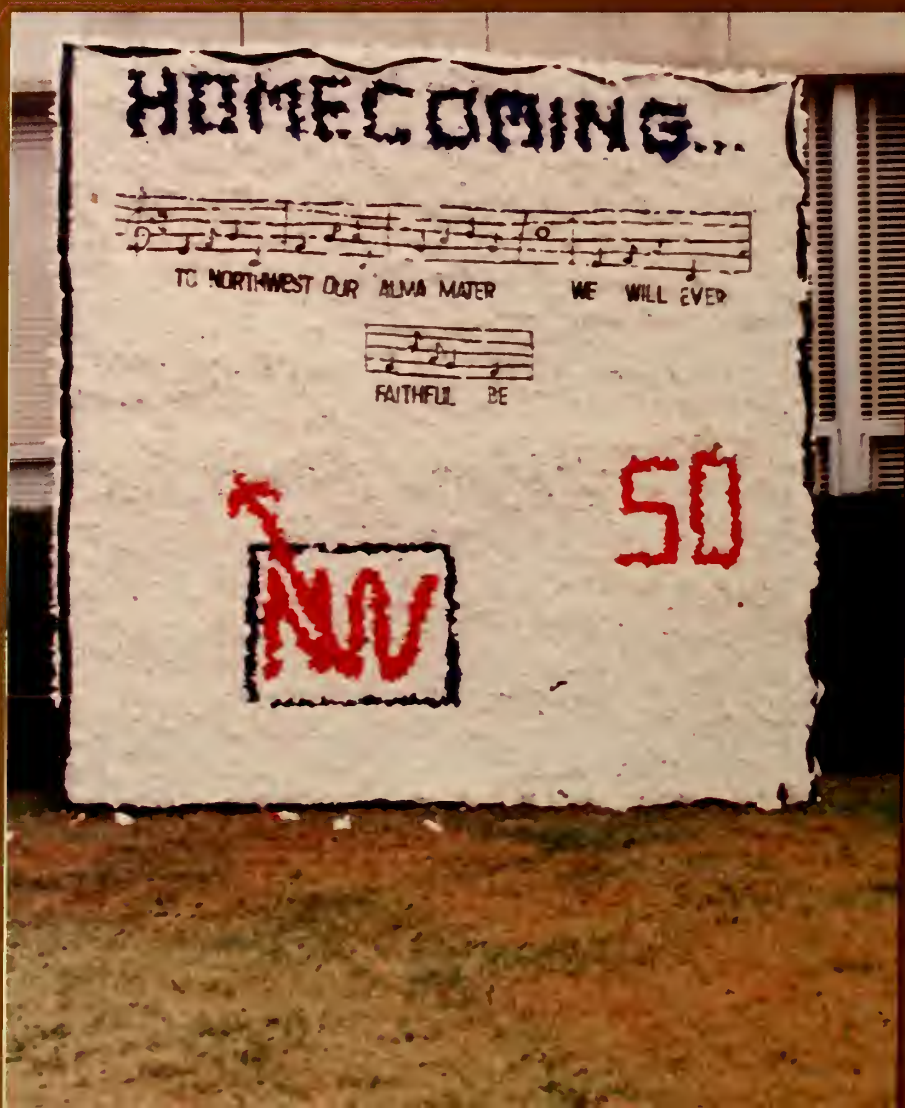

NWJC

Each of our different experiences will become a memory.

Whatever the next fifty years hold for Northwest
— the purpose, the progress, the pride . . .

Lies in the hands of a new generation.
Northwest — you have only just begun!

I USED TO BE MEAN
AND I USED TO BE TOUGH,
I USED TO BE ROWDY
AND I USED TO BE ROUGH,
I CAME TO NORTHWEST
TO DO MY BEST,
AND WOUND UP JUST LIKE
ALL THE REST.

(CHORUS)
I'M A SECOND STRING
YEA!! I'M A SECOND STRING.
I'LL DO ANYTHING,
I DON'T GIVE A DANG,
I'M A SECOND STRING.
I STAY ON THE LAWN
FROM DUSK 'TIL DAWN,
RUNNIN' MY SPRINTS
AND SINGIN' MY SONG.

(CHORUS)
I CAN BE SEEN
ON THE KICKOFF TEAM,
WHEN TOE KICKS OFF
YOU CAN HEAR ME SCREAM.

Ranger Football

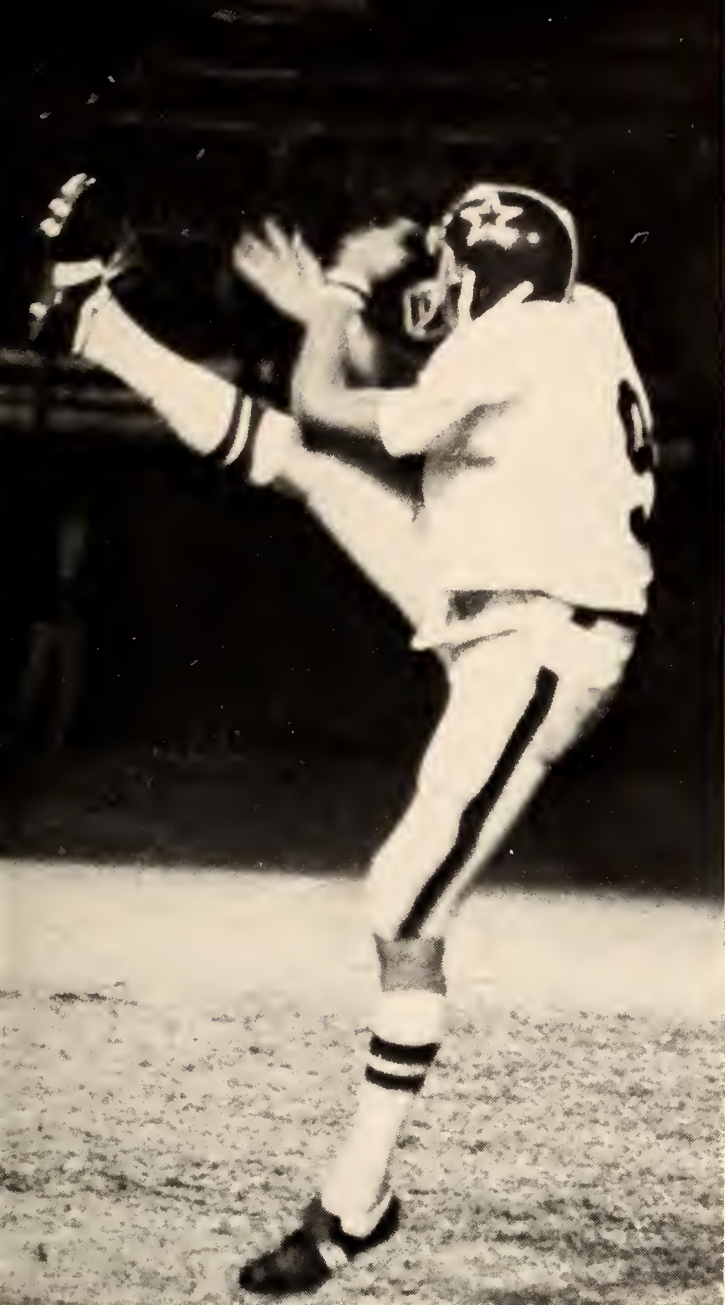

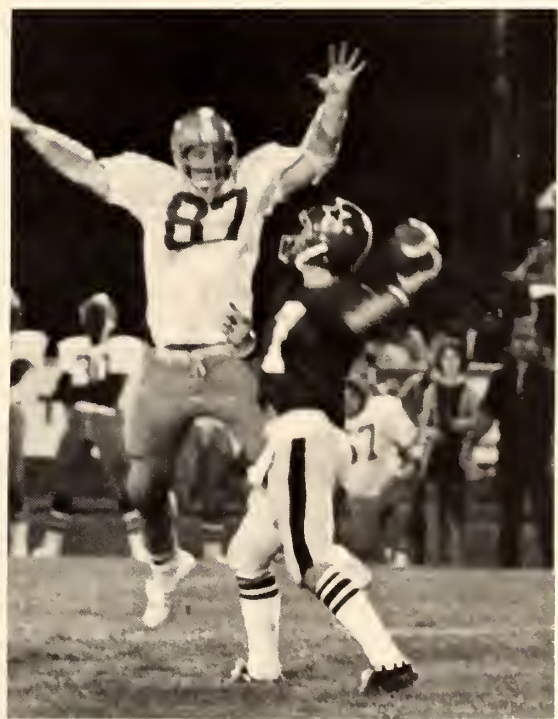

Rangers Fight for Victory

"Northwest Is Too Tough"

The Northwest Rangers set their goals high early in the 1976 football season; they were ranked first in the north division and they were ready for action. Ranger fans supported the second best in the state all the way.

Coach A. J. Kilpatrick, in his tenure of two years at Northwest, commented by saying, "Although we did not win the state match, this has been a great year for all those concerned with the Ranger football team. They are a great group of young men, and I was really pleased with their performance this year."

Officially, the Rangers ended their season as North Division Champions with a 9-2 record overall and 9-1 in division play. The team was defeated in the state match on November 19 when Pearl River gained revenge and the state crown to boot. The final score in that game was 17-7 with the Wildcats destroying any hope of the number one state spot or for any further chances in the Rose Bowl game of which there had been much discussion.

Ranger football action began on September 9, on the Ranger field. Pearl River was the opponent and the leader in the South Division as Northwest in the North. The final score was 24-20 in favor of the Rangers.

The success the Rangers felt in their opening game continued for four more games before the Rangers suffered the agony of defeat.

On September 16, the Rangers promptly whipped Holmes 21-0, and the following week downed Hinds Junior College 41-19. East Mississippi fell to the Rangers 37-0 while Gulf Coast succumbed to the team from the North 10-0.

On October 16, the Rangers travelled to Moorhead to face Delta Junior College in a non-conference game. The Rangers came home with their first defeat for the season when Delta trounced the Ranger team 17-0. In an attempt to make up for the loss, the team tagged Coahoma 63-7 for the most points scored in any game of the season.

From there on out things looked good for the Rangers and there was even the possibility of playing in a bowl game. At this time, the team was ranked second in the nation in Junior Colleges.

To get to the top, the team had to ace only three more opponents. From that point it would mean a championship game. Northwest defeated Northeast at the Ranger Homecoming 28-0, thrilling a spirited crowd and gaining revenge from the year before.

Next came the North Division Championship game which Northwest won by ousting Itawamba for the throne 23-14.

The last scheduled game of the season was played at Summitt on November 11, when the Rangers defeated Southwest 24-7.

Only the championship game remained, which Northwest lost. First, second in the nation, then second in the state — no wonder a slogan developed this year. The slogan was "Northwest is too tough!"

Northwest sent only six Rangers to the All-star game in Tupelo on Thanksgiving day. They include Les Young, Eddie Hudson, Mike Carpenter, Mike Rowan, Randy Cook, and Ben Evans. All the Rangers who attended saw action and Randy Cook was chosen as outstanding defensive player. Les Young served as captain.

All-State players include Randy Cook, Ben Evans, Eddie Hudson, Guary Hunt, Thomas Martin, Mikie Rowan, and Les Young.

Individual honors came to Ben Evans who led the state in yards rushing with 1169 and also in points scored with 78 chalked up on his slate. He was also named most outstanding offensive back in the North Division and first team All-American.

Randy Cook was named most outstanding defensive back in the North Division and received honorable mention to All-American.

Les Young was named most outstanding defensive lineman in the North Division and Sammy Knight received All-American honorable mention in place kicking.

Overall, the Rangers believe they had a good season.

Conference Games

North Division Champs

Coach Kenneth "Cat" Robbins' Northwest Rangers opened their 1976-1977 season with scepticism after losing several team members from the previous season.

However, the new team, along with the returning sophomores left the Rangers with a 16-4 record for the season and won the North Division tournament.

Early in the season, the Rangers had been named as the top team in the North Division and captured national recognition when named as the number one team in the nation in defense by the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Several individuals on the team also received honors from the Association even before play-offs began. Ronnie Childers, freshman from Etta, was named as the leader in assists for the Region VII while sophomore teammate Stanley Black was at one time during the season crowned as leading rebounder in Region VII.

On Valentine's Day the Rangers traveled to Scooba for north half competition and played three games, defeating Meridian, Northeast, and Mississippi Delta. Then advanced to State competition.

In state play-offs at Moorhead, the Rangers defeated Copiah Lincoln 77-65, but in the championship game were beaten by Delta, 77-73.

The Rangers stayed in Region VII competition, which was held at Paducah Community College, Paducah, Ky., longer than any other Mississippi team. In the opening round they defeated Roane State (Tenn.) 99-67. Paducah Comm. College upset the Rangers' chance of advancing any further, however, with a 95-87 win.

Rangerettes

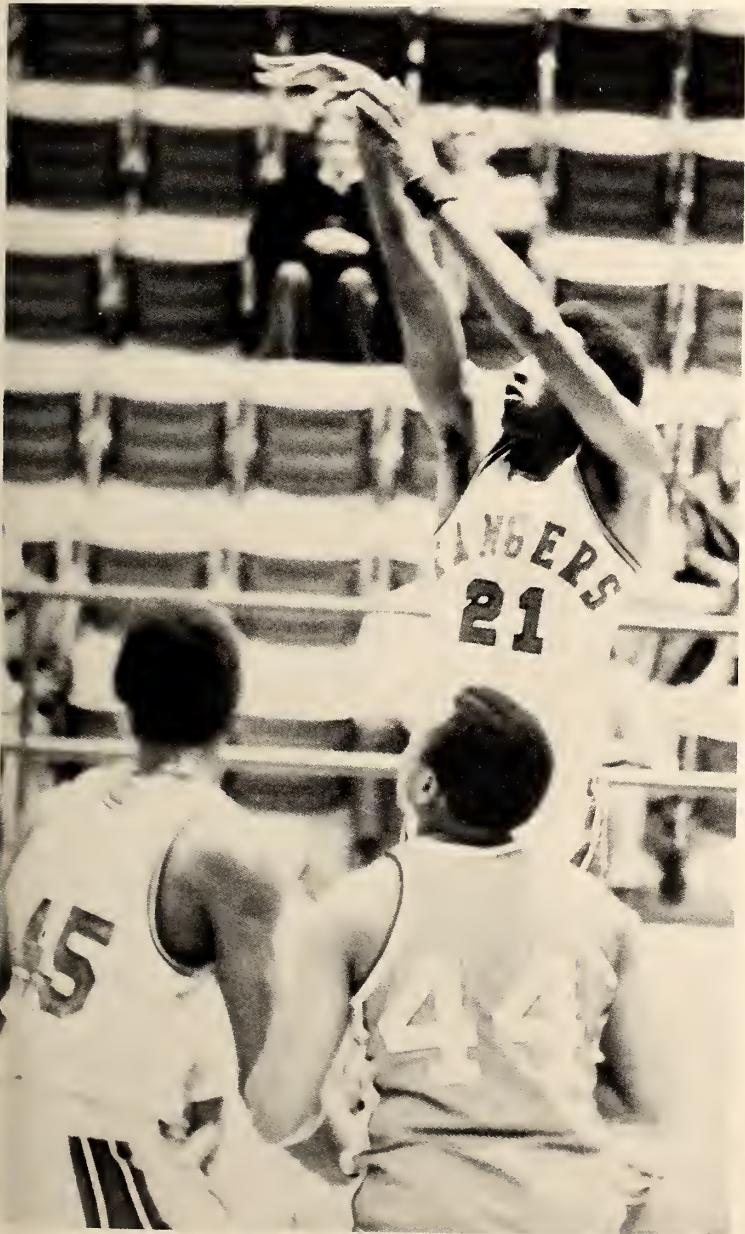

A stronger than usual women's team emerged in the Rangerettes for the 1976-1977 season. Coach Kenneth "Cat" Robbins calculated the success of the team to the versatility of the girls.

One problem which plagued the Rangerettes throughout their season was the lack of height. But they made up for this deficiency by determination and hustling. At one point in the Conference they were tied for the top spot, later dropping to the third, and then fourth.

The Lady Rangers carried a 6-5 conference slate into the north half action which began on February 18 at Booneville.

Rangers Claim State Baseball Title

As the bicentennial year of 1976 advanced into spring, the Northwest baseball team supplied a memorable event to be kept on record for years to come. They won the State Baseball Championship, a first in the fifty year history of the college.

Under the leadership of Coach Jim Miles, the Rangers showed they were state material by winning the North Division first place trophy. After the division victory, they advanced to state competition where they were pitted against Hinds Junior College from the South Division. A two out of three series was held on the new Northwest diamond.

In the first game, the Rangers came out on top 4-3. However, in game number two of the series the Eagles claimed a victory of 11-3. But in the final game, Northwest dumped Hinds in a 10-3 rout to seize the state title.

After winning the state title, the Rangers advanced to the district tournament held at Cleveland State, Cleveland, Tenn., where Northwest, along with Cleveland State, represented the Eastern Division. Cleveland put Northwest out by winning two games to none. Although their season was ended, the Rangers were, by this time, well known and widely respected.

Players on the baseball team who received honors were Ben Evans, in-fielder from Holly Springs, who was chosen as All-American at the National Junior College Tournament in Grand Junction, Colorado. Also receiving All-State honors were Joe Wilson of Holly Springs and Carey Smith of Memphis.

Coach of the Year

Honors for the Rangers did not stop with the state title. At the end of the season Coach Jim Miles was named Baseball Coach of the Year by the Mississippi Junior College Association.

Coach Miles was new to Northwest, but not to baseball championships. Having played in high school, college, and later as a professional, he led the Rangers to a successful year.

Office of the President

While Northwest Mississippi Junior College celebrated its golden anniversary during the 1976-77 academic year, President Henry B. Koon began his third year as the institution's chief administrator. Both periods of time are significant in the development of Northwest.

Officially established as a two-year college in 1927, NWJC has grown from the first class of 32 who registered in the fall of 1926 to a peak enrollment of 2,138 on two campuses in the fall of 1976. Since the fall of 1974 after Mr. Koon assumed the presidency, the number of day students alone has shown a 71 per cent increase. When continuing education and evening school enrollment is added, the college presently serves some 3,000 students throughout the area.

This service area has grown from one county to include 11 counties in northwest Mississippi. From the three original buildings on the Circle, facilities now number 48 on two campuses and the 397-acre Northwest Farm. The second campus, DeSoto Center, opened in August, 1975, and enrollment has risen each semester. Not only has the physical plant been enlarged but also educational programs have been extended to include more than 80 different academic, technical and vocational curriculums.

Under President Koon's farsighted leadership, the college is reaching more people than ever before by expanding its programs and services throughout the district. Expressing a commitment to provide the best academic and the best career programs possible to meet the needs of this district, President Koon is furnishing straightforward direction for the success of Northwest Mississippi Junior College in the years to come.

Miss Northwest Pageant

In the spring of 1976 thirteen lovely young ladies competed for the title of Miss Northwest. The ballots were cast by experienced judges after observing the girls in swimsuit, evening gown, and talent competition. Also preceding the pageant each girl was interviewed privately by the judges.

Joni McRae of Southaven won the coveted title and was crowned by Teresa Camp of Olive Branch, Miss Northwest 1975.

Sam Christ, speech and theatre instructor, served as Master of Ceremonies.

Sycamore Fair IV

Sycamore Fair IV, Spring 1976

Traditionally a week-long celebration of the various arts, Sycamore Fair has grown steadily in scope and size since its beginnings in April, 1973. Designed by a group of faculty to provide cultural resources for the college community, the Fair each year presents guest artists from the worlds of Art, Music, Literature, and Film. The festival was especially honored to present Sycamore Fair IV as a recognized Mississippi Bicentennial Celebration Event, emphasizing "The Changing South."

A thematic exhibition of photographs opened Sycamore Fair IV. The perceptive lenses of Greenville journalist-photographer Stan Burkes and Northwest faculty members Robert Seay and Edgar Thompson reflected, poignantly and poetically, the images of social change and tradition so characteristic of the South.

Memphis potter, and Northwest graduate, Dale Baucum captivated art students and general on-lookers alike with the beautiful designs and colors emerging from the kiln constructed on locale to demonstrate the fine Japanese art of Raku Firing.

The vast movement Vocabulary of ballet was the focus of a highly enjoyable and instructive lecture/demonstration/performance by the Memphis Ballet Company. Artistic Directors Michael and Judy Tevlin led students of the ballet in a presentation illustrating ballet history in a continuum from its origin to the present.

Film enthusiasts were moved by the touching story of John Singer, the deaf-mute whose efforts to communicate with others brought him frustration and pain, in Carson McCullars' "The Heart is a Lonely Hunter." The plight of the physically and mentally handicapped, and the contemporary effort to provide aid, was explored in a discussion by Wanda Luther Dean, director of the Lafayette County Development Center.

Literary buffs were charmed by the colorful tales of South Carolina novelist William Price Fox, whose humorous short stories have won him wide comparison to Mark Twain.

Music lovers enjoyed a double fete: having their taste buds tantalized by an International Food experience and their ears enchanted by the romantic and melodic strains of the classical guitar of Memphian Howard Vance.

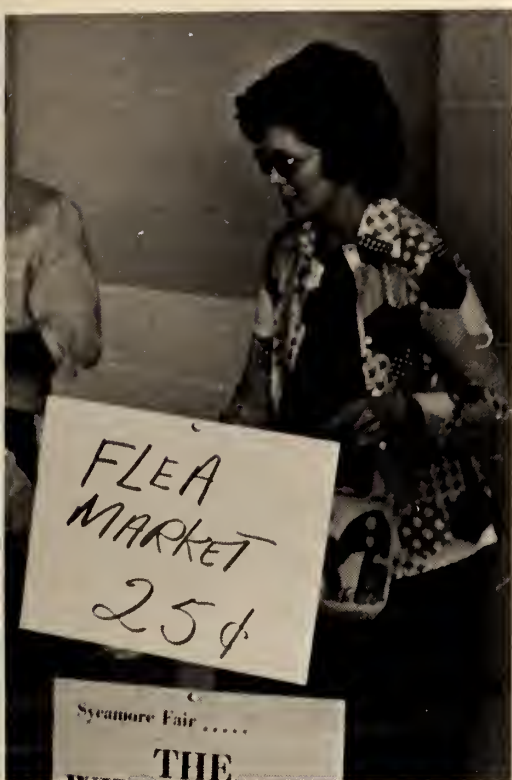

Each Sycamore Fair has culminated with a special "Fair Day," a montage of arts, crafts, musical performances, and antique displays. Sycamore Fair IV, in the spirit of "The Changing South" and its rich diversity, provided special activities for children; cooking demonstrations — in the arts of cake decorating, micro-wave cookery, and wild game preparation —; agricultural displays; and two days of special arts and crafts demonstrations, musical performances, and flea market.

Over 1800 children booed the witch and cheered the lost brother and sister in Southern Opera Theatre's delightful production of "Hansel and Gretel." They mingled with roaming fantasy characters, saw pottery and gymnastics demonstrations, "saw me" on television, and contributed clowns, tigers, and balloons to the "create-it-yourself" circus mural. "Louie the Great" impressed the elementary schoolers with his feats of magic, while others were enchanted by the tales of the Northwest story tellers. A "petting farm" filled with warm, cuddly animal bodies and a trip to the arts and crafts demonstrations or to the flea market rounded out the day for young visitors.

Fair IV's flea market was the largest yet, attracting some 2500 eager buyers, while the creative abilities and designs of silversmith Sandra Beken, weaver Peggy Crump, furniture designer Stephen Crump, and stained glass artisans Andrew Young and Reggie De Freese intrigued an almost equal number of visitors. The refrains of strolling student guitarists and the toe-tapping music of the Wilson Brothers flavored the air for all who "came to the Fair."

In all, some 8100 festival visitors joined in the recognition of America's 200th birthday during Sycamore Fair IV's presentation of "The Changing South."

DeSoto Center offers additional educational opportunities to the people in the rapidly growing area of DeSoto County.

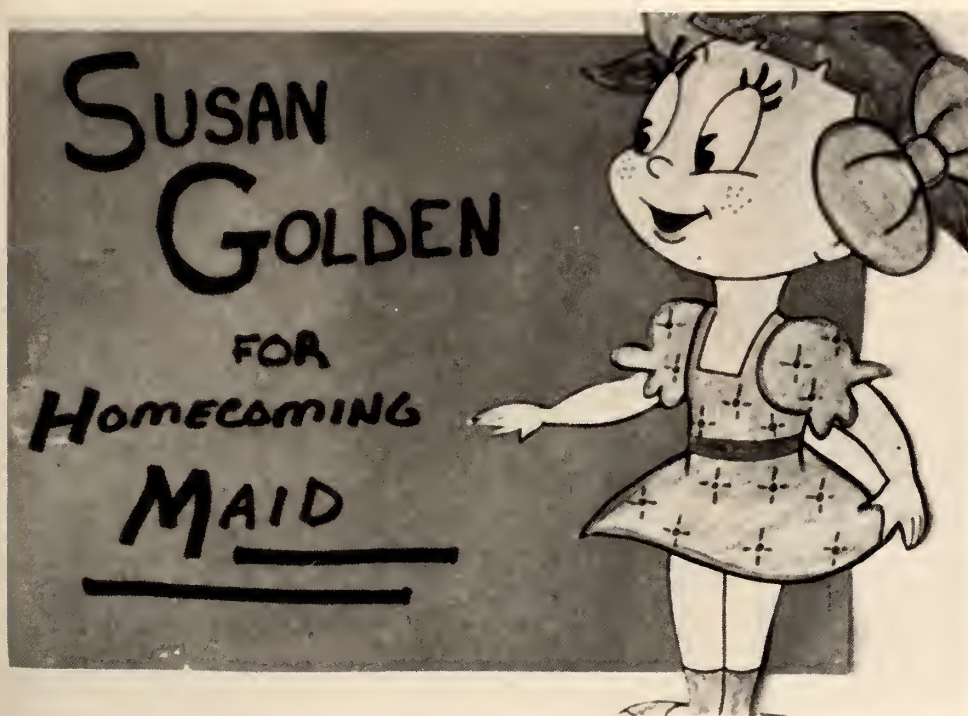

Students are encouraged to seek counsel not only in the face of specific problems but in an effort to discern, through the aid of friendly faculty, ways of constantly improving the skills required for effective living.

Elections, classes, and enjoying a break between classes are all a part of campus life at DeSoto Center.

A spacious lounge area and recreation room is the center of student activity. Even Santa found time to visit the DC campus.

"Structure your own" curriculums are developed to meet individual needs of area students. DC students include high school graduating youths, adults, housewives, employed personnel, veterans, and various citizens of the community.
